Your credit card security code is the 3-4 digit number printed on the signature panel of the back of your card. Visa, Mastercard and Discover cards are accepted. Your bank account routing number is the first 9 digits printed on the bottom of your checks, and the account number is the number that immediately follows it. The check number is the final set of numbers on your check and should NOT be included on this form. If you wish to pay using a checking account and you are at all confused about which numbers are which, please include a voided check when submitting this form and we can ensure the right numbers are used.

By submitting this form you are authorizing us to schedule payments to be made on your behalf following the instructions on this form. You can cancel or modify this information any time by notifying us in writing at least 5 business days prior to your next scheduled payment. If payment is unsuccessful and fees are incurred, you bear responsibility for those fees if there was an error in the information you submitted.
